REDONDO BEACH, Calif. (May 22, 2020) – Beach Cities Health District (BCHD) postponed its mid-March Healthy Living Campus public study session due to the COVID-19 Safer At Home Health Order. Updated campus plans will be the topic of the virtual BCHD Board of Directors public meeting on June 17 at 6:30 p.m.

Significant modifications to the proposed Healthy Living Campus Concept Master Plan will be presented – based on public input and potential impacts of the project – including a reduction in assisted living units, a shorter construction window and more.

Members of the public and media are invited to attend the June 17 Board meeting via call-in or videoconferencing platform. More information will be available on June 12 about how to join this meeting and make a public comment at <https://www.bchd.org/board-directors-meetings>.
